20th November-3rd December

Kate Russell

Southlands
A wilderness retreat. Part cinema, part residency, take a seat and be inspired by a series of film installations celebrating Gippsland landscapes and wildlife through film, dance and music.

Catherine Blamey

An Exploration of Nature
A considered study into the beauty of South Gippsland through drawing and design for stained glass.

Honey Tripper

An Exploration of Nature
Using ballpoint pen on paper Honey explores native wildlife and the landscapes of South Gippsland.

4th December-
17th December

Gonzalo Varela

The Portrait Factory
A cosy and welcoming studio in which visitors can chat with Gonzalo and have their portraits painted.

Helen Sammonds

Strings Attached
With a penchant for pattern, order and precision, Helen will explore the creative possibilities of straight lines and a piece of string.

Sarah Parkes

New Twist
Visitors will be invited to make rope from waste materials. Sarah will create a site specific installation within the cube with the rope.

18th December-
31st December

Janie Frith

Textural Impressions Janie will work on illustrations for her latest book and offer small group mono-printing art sessions using gelli plates and mixed media. Participants will have the opportunity to create works of art to take home.

(it's no) drama

No Sudden Moves
'How do objects we keep shape who we are?' (it's no) drama ensemble members share selected objects that hold unique stories and treasured memories.

1st January-28th January

Kerry Spokes

Corella Cacophony
In acknowledgement of Fish Creek's Corella population Kerry will use a computerised stencil cutting machine to create a flock of corellas within the cube.
Visitors to the cube will be able to assist in the process of painting them.

Community Cube

From the 4th January
The People's Gallery
You are invited to come and create! Take a card, draw a picture and hang it up.
Simple!

8th January-
28th January

Helen Tiernan

Storied Country
Helen views and paints the Australian landscape as a memory bank, rich with indigenous knowledge and stories associated with traditional life, colonial encounters and life today.
